

Mutated.

Mutant Classifications:

First Degree:

Mutants under this classification do not have real powers. They are only physically mutated and are not harmful or dangerous at all. Example – Jackal, her body is mutated to an animal like form.

Second Degree:

Mutants under this classification have slight powers. Their powers are simple and not harmful or dangerous to others. Example – Gradient, he can only change the color of his body.

Third Degree:

Mutants under this level have powers that are stronger but do not serve a serious threat. They are no harmful or dangerous. Example – Pixie, she can shrink herself and other objects.

Forth Degree:

Mutants under this classification become more powerful. They serve a possible threat and can be dangerous. Example – Cricket, she has powerful length stretch and can severely hurt someone with her strength.

Fifth Degree:

Mutants under this classification are more dangerous. Their powers can seriously damage numerous of people. Example – Blaze, he can create beams of heat and burn and destroy his enemies or other objects.

Sixth Degree:

Mutants under this classification are very powerful. They are in control of their powers but their powers are too dangerous. Example – Unknown.

Seventh Degree:

Mutants under this classification are extremely powerful. Their powers are very deadly and dangerous. The mutant is unable to control their powers. Example – Unknown.